Annual Report 2010-11

Dear Friends of Urban Ministries,

I'm back for another year and excited to be here, especially since this will be our Band Together year. Urban Ministries has so much in store, and I am thrilled to be part of it.

I wish I could tell you things are getting better for people in need, but lingering high unemployment has plagued North Carolinians and continues to devastate families. More and more we hear from clients that this is the first time in their lives they have had to ask for help. Most of them tell us they have always been on the helping end, not the receiving end, and asking for food or medical care is embarrassing for them. But when their children are hungry or their diabetes is out of control because they can't afford insulin, or they have exhausted the good will of family and friends and they have become homeless—they have no choice but to come to Urban Ministries. Nothing is attractive about hunger, sickness, homelessness and the degradation that goes with having to beg for the things we all need to survive.

Urban Ministries has always been a safety net -- a place to go when all other resources are depleted. In the past year, more than 24,000 Wake County residents received help here. Many public assistance programs have seen significant budget cuts. The non-profit network is now shouldering more and more of the burden for services in Wake County and other communities.

Times are tight in the nonprofit sector as well. Urban Ministries has nothing left to trim from the budget. Never have we been so lean. We bring in more than $8.5 million worth of in-kind resources to meet people's needs; we depend on volunteers to provide the equivalent of 22 full-time staff to provide direct services; we spend enormous energy raising funds to support our infrastructure and to provide the venue to distribute these resources to people in desperate straits.

If ever you felt called to support Urban Ministries, please do so now. If you already support our work, thank you—and please consider increasing your gift this year. Remember, a cloth is woven of many threads. When some of them wear through to make a hole, others can be woven into the fabric to repair the hole. When the safety net is severely frayed, as it is today, you can be part of repairing the net to keep people afloat until times improve.

Thank you so much for partnering with us in this vital work.

Anne M. Burke
Executive Director

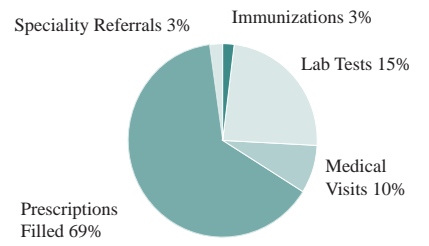

“As a church we claim to be as concerned about those beyond our walls as we are about those who come inside our buildings. Through Urban Ministries we can do what we could never do apart from this partnership. Urban Ministries provides us the opportunity to help 24,000 individuals in Wake County. For example, they give us avenues for serving the hungry through the teams from our church which provide hot meals at the Helen Wright Center. We have also been blessed by our participation in the Urban Ministries Food Pantry where we have brought 14,370 pounds of food in the last 20 months. We are grateful for Urban Ministries helping us be the church God calls us to be!”

Many thanks to St. Michael's Episcopal for their amazing support of the Urban Ministries Food Pantry! During the past two summers, the congregation has collected more than 4,700 pounds of food – nearly 2 ½ tons. In addition, the congregation supports The Urban Ministries Holiday Honor Card program at its alternative gift giving fair. Thank you St. Michaels!

URBAN MINISTRIES AND BAND TOGETHER STRIKE A CHORD FOR HONOREES

Each year, Urban Ministries of Wake County serves 24,000 needy Wake County residents with food, medical care and shelter. On Thursday, September 22, the agency honored the partners who make this work possible and kicked off its partnership with Band Together at the first Awards and Chords celebration at Urban Ministries headquarters.

Urban Ministries and Band Together will partner to raise $600,000 through a concert in spring 2012. The funds raised will enable Urban Ministries to serve more new low-income, uninsured adults at its Open Door Clinic. The mission of Band Together is to raise funds and awareness for select nonprofit organizations through events that showcase and support musical talent. With the success of the 2011 Band Together concert to benefit Alliance Medical Ministry, Band Together has contributed more than $1.5 million to help local agencies improve our community. The 2012 event also will raise awareness of the growing number of low-income, uninsured people in Wake County and increase the capacity of Urban Ministries Open Door Clinic.

The Awards and Chords event also recognized the following for their contributions to the community through their dedication to the mission of Urban Ministries.

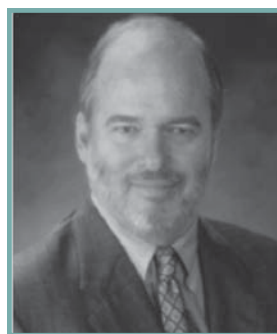

Liza Roberts, Network President, (center) accepts the Community Partner Award from Anne Burke and Celia Poole, Awards Committee Chair

The Women's Giving Network of Wake County, Community Partner of the Year

The network and its members are long-term, generous supporters of Urban Ministries. In 2009, the Network awarded a grant of $49,500 to help the Open Door Clinic provide comprehensive medical care to minority women living in poverty. In 2010, the Network provided a grant of $50,000 to help 250 homeless women from the Helen Wright Center move to stable housing and employment. Network members serve on the Urban Ministries Board of Directors and on event committees. They seek to connect the agency to the greater community. Urban Ministries could not ask for a more committed, caring partner. The Network was nominated by Tricia Phoenix, Urban Ministries Board Member.

Board Member Emeritus Mary Anne Howard's dedication to Urban Ministries has been demonstrated by her 16 years of leadership on the Board of Directors and her commitment to the agency and its mission beyond her Board service. During her tenure, she served as Chair Elect, Chair and Past Chair. She also chaired the Board Development and Fund Development committees. Mary Anne is a tremendous ambassador for Urban Ministries and an outstanding fundraiser. She was instrumental in the Capital Campaign, which raised more than $5 million for the headquarters on Capital Boulevard. Mary Anne is always willing to undertake new roles to benefit the agency, and she does so with energy and commitment. Mary Anne was nominated by John Lunsford, Immediate Past Board Chair.

Board Member of the Year John Lunsford served as treasurer for many years and chaired the Urban Ministries Board from 2009-2011, where he had many new duties added to his job description. He handled all of them with skill and grace. John was instrumental in the executive search process for a new Executive Director, and he spent long hours leading this important project. John also reassumed the role of treasurer when this position became vacant. John was active in every aspect of the agency's work. He articulated the agency's mission and needs effectively to the board and the community, which is especially important in this this challenging economic climate. John was nominated by Lisa Cunningham, 2011-2013 Board Chair.

Staff Member of the Year and Director of Crisis Support Services Sam McLean is a testament to the excellence of the Urban Ministries staff. Sam McLean has been a valued staff member for nearly 12 years. With more than 100 calls a day, over 30-40 clients in crisis daily, and management of the largest core program, Sam has one of the most demanding schedules in the agency. Crisis Support Services touches more than 20,000 lives a year, and Sam and his team accomplish this on a tight budget with a lean staff. Sam works hard to ensure his staff is supported and clients receive the services they need to get back on their feet. He goes the extra mile and solves difficult problems with grace. Sam knows every available community resource, and nonprofits countywide send people to Sam for help when they have nowhere else to turn. Sam loves his work and cares deeply about others. He is a team player who always pitches in to help. Sam was nominated by Kelly Leonhardt, Manager of Development and Communications.

Remembering Reverend Stephen Paul Gerhard

The Reverend Stephen Paul Gerhard, 65, Pastor Emeritus of Holy Trinity Lutheran Church, and Urban

Ministries' first Board Chair, passed away on May 17 in Winston-Salem. Reverend Gerhard was a dedicated pastor, an energetic community leader, and beloved by his family. His life was one of service, offering wisdom, compassion and grace to all he met. Reverend Gerhard is survived by his wife, Barbara Jeanne Foreman Gerhard, a son, daughter, two grandchildren and a sister. The Urban Ministries family sends its deepest sympathies to the Gerhard family.

“iContact supports Urban Ministries with volunteering, free email marketing and social media services, and grants because they are a well-run organization producing tangible impacts for our community. What is more, Urban Ministries provides meaningful volunteer opportunities that empower our team to get involved and learn about the needs of so many families in the Triangle. We know that without Urban Ministries, tens of thousands of people each year would go hungry, would lack access to basic healthcare, and would be without a support system that can mean the difference between economic stability and poverty.” - Matt Kopac, Corporate Responsibility Manager, iContact

“The needs in our community right now are overwhelming. Urban Ministries provides compassionate assistance in so many practical ways. Having volunteered, donated groceries, and worked at Urban Ministries, I know first hand that when I contribute money to this wonderful organization, each dollar is spent wisely and efficiently. I am grateful for their good stewardship of contributed funds.” - Mary June Jones, Volunteer and Donor

SPOTLIGHT ON PARTNERSHIPS:

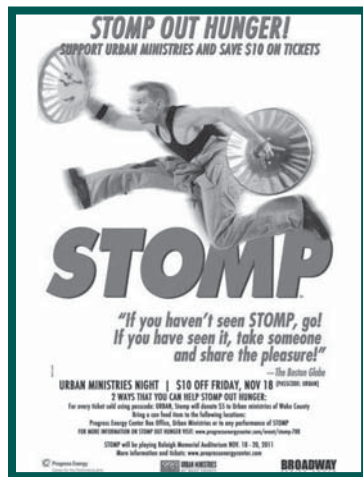

Thanks to these partners who strengthen Urban Ministries' work in the community.

In 2011, Filling in Gaps (FIGS) has partnered with Urban Ministries to give $73,000 to provide 2,122 prescriptions to 841 people in need and another $40,000 to purchase medications for the Clinic pharmacy. FIGS is an all-volunteer organization that raises money to help economically disadvantaged people get the prescriptions they need.

Urban Ministries welcomes Dress for Success to 1390 Capital Boulevard. This organization helps disadvantaged women transition into employment, promotes economic independence by providing professional attire and provides a network of support and career development tools to help women succeed in work and in life. To more information, go to trianglenc@dressforsuccess.org.

Thanks to the support of our long-term partner, Blue Cross and Blue Shield of North Carolina, and a new partner, Allscripts, a leading provider of electronic health record (EHR) solutions, Urban Ministries Open Door Clinic will be able to computerize its medical records and provide even more efficient and effective care to its patients.

Blue Cross and Allscripts are collaborating with the N.C. Association of Free Clinics to bring the Allscripts My Way electronic medical record program to 39 free clinics free of charge and at a discount to 600 private physicians in NC.

STOMP out Hunger!

Stomp, the musical sensation, will help Urban Ministries STOMP out hunger during its Raleigh tour November 18-20. A portion of the November 18 show proceeds will benefit Urban Ministries, and canned goods will be collected at all performances in Raleigh!

All friends of Urban Ministries of Wake County receive $10 off tickets for the FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 18, 7:30 p.m. show at Progress Energy Center for the Performing Arts. Offer Code/Password: URBAN

To purchase tickets, go to www.urbanmin.org and look for the STOMP button. The agency will also receive $5 for every ticket sold under this code up to $5,000 in donations! Join us, and help STOMP out hunger in Wake County!

Jared with his daughter, Makena

Meet Board Secretary Jared Wilkins

What inspired you to become involved in Urban Ministries and its mission?

Paul Anderson, a former Board member, talked to me about Urban Ministries a few years ago. After he told me about the organization, I looked it up for myself. It was an easy decision. It is an honor to be a part of an organization that has a direct impact on the local community in which I live.

What is your favorite part of Board service? My favorite part of Board service is actually when I have the opportunity to serve in one of the many programs as well as introducing others in the community to the organization.

What do you think is Urban Ministries most important contribution to our community? I am not sure if I can name just one but I will try. I believe that it is the Food Pantry. So many families and individuals go without basic needs, and for Urban Ministries to have the capacity to step in and fill those needs is honorable.

Tell us about your work at Wake Chapel. I am the Teaching Pastor at Wake Chapel. I assist in Youth and Family Development, organize leadership training, work with six different internal ministries, develop Bible Study plans primarily for the youth, organize mission trips, college tours, community service projects, preach sermons, etc. I also am taking a stab at video editing and shooting documentaries to capture different moments. (I shot a documentary of a recent trip to Philadelphia for a mission trip.)

What do you like to do when you aren't working or volunteering in the community? Spending time with my wife and daughter, reading, cooking on the grill (yes I am a semi-grill master -- or at least I think I am), playing the piano and watching Criminal Minds!

Congratulations Anne!

Congratulations to Executive Director Anne Burke who was honored with the 2011 Women's Leadership Award by the United Way of the Greater Triangle's Women's Leadership Council. Anne received the award at a luncheon on September 16. Anne was recognized for her 30 years of dedicated service to improving the quality of life for people of Wake County.

Anne receives the award from Craig Chancellor, CEO of the United Way of the Greater Triangle
